

Building EEO into your organisational planning and development

Susan Biggs

Human Rights Commission, New Zealand

This presentation will deal with equal employment opportunities and diversity. It will provide a framework and methodology for building diversity / EEO into organisational planning and development. This tool has been used in the past 12 months by Crown entities in New Zealand to ensure they are meeting their statutory obligations to be a 'good employer'. The presentation will use New Zealand Fire Service as a case study example. The presentation will briefly outline the New Zealand experience of incorporating diversity into organisational and social structures and the value of diversity from a business and social perspective.
